ELEGANCE AND PURITY

Essential lines, rounded contours. A slim profile. The purity of glass, a natural material that accumulates heat and gently returns it.

...And decorates your bathroom with elegance.

WELL-BEING

The discreet and powerful turbo function heats up the bathroom in just a few minutes, even a large one. The glass front, with the exclusive active inertia heating system, radiates enveloping and low-consumption heat, maintaining a welcoming atmosphere and always warm towels.
